

“The last edition of the School of Law Christ University National Moot Court Competition dealt with several contemporary issues pertaining to the on-going battle with corruption. 34 teams participated and National Law Institute University (NLIU) Bhopal emerged as the winners beating National University of Juridical Sciences (NUJS) Calcutta in closely contested final which was judged by Hon’ble Mr Justice Vijay C Dhaga (retd.), Mr Aravind P Datar, and Mr K G Raghavan, Senior Advocates.

This finals was followed by a valedictory ceremony presided over by Hon’ble Mr Justice Mukundakam Sharma (retd.), Sitting Judge, Supreme Court of India and Mr R Ashoka, Minister for Home Affairs, Govt of Karnataka. “